

Belongia, Shapiro & Hynes, LLP

Chicago (July 1, 2009) – Belongia, Shapiro & Hynes, LLP is pleased to announce the opening of its new law offices at 20 South Clark Street, Suite 300, Chicago, Illinois. Belongia, Shapiro & Hynes, LLP expanded its offices due to its ever expanding client base and the addition of several new attorneys in 2009, doubling its size.

The move and expansion fit Belongia, Shapiro & Hynes, LLP's strategy of adding the right attorneys to the Firm's roster to meet all of its clients' needs. "We believe in putting our client's needs first and we strive to provide the best possible legal representation," says Mark D. Belongia, the Firm's Managing Partner. "We've grown in these tough economic times as we are committed to providing smart and effective representation to our clients. With our trusted experience, we are helping people and businesses navigate these turbulent times." The new additions will add depth to the Firm's core practice areas while also allowing it to continue to fully serve its clients.

About Belongia, Shapiro & Hynes, LLP: Belongia, Shapiro & Hynes, LLP is a full-service boutique law firm that handles a wide scope of legal matters locally, nationally and internationally. The Firm's trusted experience and reliable leadership have allowed its attorneys to represent a broad client base ranging from large multi-national corporations to individuals. Over the course of our Firm's history, it has developed a broad legal practice that includes involvement in many high profile cases and representations. www.belongialaw.com

Contact: Christine Fikany (312-662-1030) or cfikany@belongialaw.com